I accidently pressed (close) sorry. There is a new posting from an original text unplaced on LinkedIn in July of 2016. I have used AI to better it's composition. It's on the subject of gangstalking and peace/reconciliation. Your Question: What if a public county employee acting as a social actor blocks me on LinkedIn after I posted reply comments onto her page see attachment. What can be done? It is a violation of my firstbsdmebdmebt roghts as is the same violation that President Trump had to settle on his blocking individual accounts of social media particular Twitter. I have this interaction archived on to my own website domain journal archive. Nothing I have done is a violation of terms of service. <http://fuckeduphuman.life/Doctor-Veronica-Lynn-Kelley/LinkedIn/> As disclosed to Doctor Kelley as far as stabdards, there are actual LinkedIn company profiles with the word Fuck in them that is not a reason to block me from reconciling the truth of these matters please respond.
